APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED

John G. Koeltl, U.S.D.J.

Re: United States v. Asim Hameedi, et al.,
17 Cr. 137 (JGK)

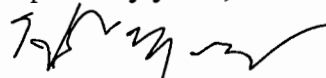

Dear Judge Koeltl,

We write on behalf of defendant Dr. Asim Hameedi in the above-referenced matter to request a brief extension of time to respond to the Court's Order dated today, inquiring of the parties on how we wish to proceed on the question of forfeiture. (See ECF Doc. 392, 1/10/20.) We conferred with Assistant United States Attorney David Abramowicz, and on behalf of the government, he joins this request. The parties respectfully request an extension of time to advise the Court of our decision by January 17, 2020.

We make this request to allow adequate time for the parties to confer about a possible stipulated amount of forfeiture or facts that could alleviate an evidentiary hearing. Because of travel and other work-related schedules of the attorneys involved, this extension is needed to ensure the parties can schedule the necessary meetings to review these issues together prior to responding to the Court.

We thank the Court for its careful consideration of these many sentencing issues.

Respectfully yours,

Henry E. Mazurek
